It's August, it's hot, so why not chat about a few of the 'coolest' hotspots I've found?

Marche Bacchus

Water-side setting, great wine selection, attentive service. There will be more about this fun French bistro tucked in the Lakeside Center in an upcoming issue. Thanks to Executive Chef Jean-David Groff Daudet - everything was simply scrumptious.

Sababa

Falafel and hummus - need I say more?

Paymon's Mediterranean

Athens fries, dolmas, kabobs and Italian food - yum, yum, yum. Thanks Frank and Jeff for inviting us to try your tasty Italian fare.

Sapporo

Teppan Yaki in a sophisticated setting - and right off the 215.

Ritzy Rags

Consignment shopping at its best. Friendly people invite you in and even offer you water. The store at Rainbow and Sahara is clean, fresh-smelling and orderly. Famous names including less-pricey, hardly-worn Manolo Blahniks.

Red Rock

Dancing at Cherry, dining at Hibachi, watching movies and people all equal a good time.

Mimi's

French onion soup and bread. More please!

Debbie recommends Indra Grae Boutique

for trendy clothes on Fort Apache.

She also picks White Chocolate Grill

for their glazed carrots and chocolate cake.

Sarah says the Rio Buffet is the place to indulge.

But don't just take our word for it - let us know your favorites. To send me your list of places and products to check out, e-mail me at suzieb@crystalpubs.com.
